

Dress Code for the Medical College Students

1. Attention should be paid to general hygiene, clean clothes and body
2. Before entering into the laboratory or hospital or lobby, student must adhere to wear a (White coat) and holds the student's identity and that highlight the full name and phase so that we are clear to all employees and patients.
3. Attends with a professional look in terms of clothing and act Professionally where there is no way allows the use of any clothing or appearance or utility that student shows public appearance unlike standard college (such as the use of presses shattered or carrying rosary or medals during presence within the college laboratories or lobbies of hospital and health centers)
4. Preferably made using special tie while inside the hospital.
5. Sleeved shirt should be under the elbow joint (shirt should be below the elbows). It also must be parallel to the line of the shirt neck.
6. Use light-colored clothing and stay away from bright colors, which may disturb the patient (such as red and purple pink green ...) It is advisable to use colors (Blue Black White Gray) and should not be carrying advertisements in all its forms at all.
7. The pants must not be so tight and it should seems to look professional.
8. Make-up: it must be very light and must stay away from the use of bright colors.

9. Keep away from using perfumes and scents of cost, where some of them may provoke allergic reactions in patients, but if necessary you should use the light of them.
10. Nails must not exceed the top of the finger, and it is strictly prohibited to use industrial nails. also dark nails paint should not be used.
11. Long hair should be tied back of the neck so as not to affect the patient examining process during practical sessions.
12. It is strictly prohibited to use the jewelries except for ear rings and engagement ring.
13. Avoid eating and drinking during the practical sessions also chewing gum is prohibited.
14. For students, the beards are allowed, but must be unrefined, taking into account the cyclical Janitorial.
15. Head of departments and staff involved in clinical teaching are asked to follow up the implementation of these instructions and to inform the dean of the college periodically.