

The ON Language Summer Camp for Language and Leadership

Are you interested in improving and practicing your English language? Would you like to develop your leadership skills to be a future leader? Would you like to do both in America? Join our summer camp to enjoy two weeks of rich, rewarding, and fun learning experience in America. You will improve your English with distinguished English language teachers, practice your language with your classmates and native speakers, learn how to be a future leader, and enjoy field trips to some of America's most beautiful tourist attractions.

For two weeks, you will enjoy 50 hours of language instruction and leadership training that will impact your life and help guide you to envision your future. Our summer camp includes the following:

- Ten (10) days of English language learning
- 25 hours of leadership training
- Sports activities
- Field trips to tourist attractions
- Airport pick up
- Transportation to and from school
- Housing
- Food
- Help with US visa
